

Molly Ledford & Billy Kelly

TREES

Songwriters Molly Ledford and Billy Kelly are pleased to present their debut album, Trees, featuring fourteen songs about – you guessed it – trees!

Produced by Grammy-winning producer Dean Jones, Trees is by turns informative, wistful and absurd. From the straight-up love song “Two Trees, Old Friends” to the Tom Jones influenced “I, Wood”, Trees moves sportively from one musical genre to another, repeatedly offering the listener a fresh perspective on everybody’s favorite ubiquitous woody plants.

Music lovers who know what trees are will find much to enjoy in this smart, quirky, fun album. Available starting on March 20th, the first day of Spring, 2015!
